Background/Discussion

Salary and benefit negotiations are conducted periodically with the city's employee associations. Based on recently concluded negotiations, the following changes are included in the MOU:

- A Cost of Living Adjustment (COLA) of 3% effective July 1, 2023
- A COLA of 3% effective July 1, 2024
- A provision granting a 2% longevity incentive to all WGEA employees at 20-years of continuous service to the City of Wheatland.
- A commitment to complete a CalPERS actuarial study at a cost not-to-exceed $10,000 with the Finance Director providing quarterly updates on the progress of the study.
- A commitment to reopen negotiations with WGEA if the City Council does not complete the CalPERS actuarial Study.

The 2% incentive for longevity will affect 2 current employees. If all current employees continue serving, only one additional employee will become eligible in the next five years.

Alternatives
